The History

- Bayonne was built on an old sanitary landfill covered with 7 million cubic yards of fill, much of it dredged from the harbor in efforts to make the harbor deep enough for supertankers.
- The deposits were piled up to 10 stories high, which developer-designer Eric Bergstol then shaped into towering faux sand dunes.
- Called “the most audacious golf course in the world” by Sports Illustrated

The Course

- Designer: Eric Bergstol (2006)
- What to Expect:
 - Bayonne’s design pays homage to the great seaside courses of Scotland and Ireland.
 - The unique waterfront setting provides dazzling views of New York Harbor’s dynamic landscape and Manhattan’s iconic skyline.
 - “A round at Bayonne can seem like Alice’s fall down the rabbit hole. The location — only four miles across the Hudson River from Wall Street — is unreal.” – Travel & Leisure Golf
