Justin Wiseman

Vice President for Residential Policy and Managing Regulatory Counsel Mortgage Bankers Association

Justin Wiseman is the Vice President for Residential Policy and Managing Regulatory Counsel at MBA. He is responsible for leading MBA's residential policy efforts to cover compliance, origination, capital markets and servicing issues. He has served in various roles since joining MBA in 2012, first as Associate Regulatory Counsel and Director of Loan Administration Policy Associate Vice President, Managing Regulatory Counsel. Wiseman oversees the association's legal and regulatory issues for loan production, servicing, pending rules and legislation, and leads the amicus brief program.

Prior to MBA, Wiseman clerked for the federal District Court in the Middle District of Tennessee and worked with the Center for Strategic and International Studies on European and Transatlantic security issues. Wiseman is a graduate of Emory University School of Law and Dartmouth College.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
