MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MBA SPEAKERS BUREAU

Fran Mordi

Vice President, Financial Accounting, Tax & Accounting Policy
Mortgage Bankers Association

Fran Mordi joined the Mortgage Bankers Association in 2017 with over 15 years of post-Law school experience in the areas of tax and accounting. As VP in the Tax, Accounting & Mortgage Markets group at the American Bankers Association for ten years, Mordi works with financial services entities on tax and accounting issues, specifically as subject matter expert and member engagement lead on policy and compliance.

Mordi oversees domestic and international issues impacting the industry, put together training sessions for members, managed several banker committees, and was a frequent speaker at various bank tax conferences and meetings.

Mordi has extensive experience working with the banking regulators, FASB, the Treasury and Congress as an advocate of the financial services industry. Before joining MBA, Mordi spent a few years at Deloitte Tax where she expanded her knowledge and experience in Tax Accounting as well as client relationship and management.

Fran holds a J.D. from New England Law School, Boston, MA, and an LL.M in Taxation from Georgetown Law School, Washington, DC.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
