Terumo Blood and Cell Technologies Equipment Service Life Definition for the Spectra Optia® Apheresis System

Dear Valued Customer,

Terumo Blood and Cell Technologies designed the Spectra Optia Apheresis System to have a service life of 10 years after the date of manufacture and under normal service conditions, use and maintenance.

This definition does not modify, extend or replace the applicable Terumo Blood and Cell Technologies Limited Warranty for the equipment.

We appreciate your continued support and look forward to serving you. If you have any questions, please visit terumobct.com/contact-us for complete contact information.

Sincerely,

Keith M. Kazmer
Product Manager, Therapeutic Apheresis and Cell Collections
